

Table of Contents

Articles	Page Number
1. Backward Pragmatic Transfer: The Case of Refusals in Persian Mansoor Tavakoli & Salva Shirinbakhsh	1-24
2. The Use of Second-Person Reference in Advertisement Translation with Reference to Translation between Chinese and English Ying Cui & Yanli Zhao	25-36
3. Reverse Addressing in Modern Persian Mahbube Tavakol & Hamid Allami	37-52
4. Beyond Self Containment: On the Politics of Identity and Culture in a ‘Glocal’ Society Wincharles Coker	53-62
5. A Socio-Cultural Study of Language Teacher Status Reza Pishghadam & Fahimeh Saboori	63-72
6. I am not Prejudiced, or am I? Semantic Strategies Used by Ghanaian University Students in the Discourse of Ethnic Prejudice Alfred Lawrence Owusu-Ansah	73-87
7. Demotivating and Remotivating Factors among MA Students of TEFL: An Iranian Case Rahman Sahragard & Ehsan Ansaripour	88-105
8. An Analysis of Metaphoric Use of Names of Body Parts in the Bantu Language Kifipa Amani Lusekelo, & Daudi Isaac Kapufi	106-118
9. An Investigation of the Linguistic, Paralinguistic and Sociocultural Effects of Input on the Perception and Translation of Gerunds by Persian Speakers of English Seyyed Ahmad Mousavi, Aliakbar Khomijani Farahani & Saleh Arizavi	119-130
Book Review
10. Reflections by Robert Phillipson on English in Post-Revolutionary Iran. From Indigenization to Internationalization, M. Borjian (2013), Multilingual Matters, ISBN 978-1847699091 Robert Phillipson	131-137