

Table of Contents

Articles	Page Number
1. Investigating Non-Native English Speaking Graduate Students' Pragmatic Development in Requestive Emails Shaun Wei-Hong Ko, Zohreh R. Eslami, & Lynn M. Burlbaw	1-15
2. Changes and Challenges of Literacy Practices: A Case of a Village in Iran Brian Street, Reza Pishghadam, & Shiva Zeinali	16-27
3. An Exploratory Study on the Use of I Love You in the American Context Yong Lang, Lian Wang, Caihong Xie, & Wencui Chen	28-46
4. Discourse Markers in Political Interviews: A Contrastive Study of Persian and English Amir Zand-Moghadam & Leila Bikineh	47-61
5. The Consequences of the Contacts between Bantu and Non-Bantu Languages around Lake Eyasi in Northern Tanzania Amani Lusekelo	62-75
6. Assertiveness, Compliance and Politeness: Pragmatic and Sociocultural Aspects of 'Brazilian English' and 'American English' Milene Mendes de Oliveira	76-90
7. The Question of Re-Presentation In EFL Course Books: Are Learners of English Taught about New Zealand? Tugba Elif Toprak & Yasemin Aksoyalp	91-104
8. A Separation, an Ideological Rift in the Iranian Society and Culture: Media, Discourse and Ideology Reza Zabihi, Momene Ghadiri, & Abbas Eslami Rasekh	105-119
9. Discursive Strategies in Selected Political Rally Campaigns of 2011 Elections in Southwestern Nigeria Mohammed Ayodeji Ademilokun	120-132
Book Review
10. What Is Sociolinguistics?, G. Van Herk (2012), Wiley-Blackwell, ISBN 978-1-405-19318-4 Maryam Sadat Tabatabaeian	133-138